Westinghouse Illness Prevention Program

Westinghouse Global Security

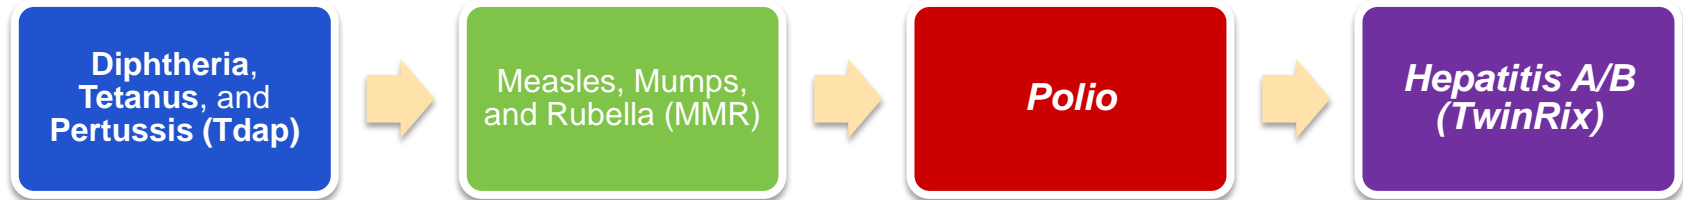

WHAT IS THE ILLNESS PREVENTION PROGRAM?

- A program that will provide administration and tracking of individual vaccinations for Westinghouse international travelers. The program also provides:

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- As an international traveler, you are required to obtain the following vaccinations either through your personal health care provider or through Passport Health:

- If it is unknown if the vaccinations were obtained in the past, there is no risk in potentially being vaccinated again.
- If you have record of obtaining some or all of the required vaccinations, a formal document from your health care provider will be necessary to provide to Passport Health.
- Payment for vaccines and peripherals are made through the use of a company travel credit card at the time of the appointment and costs are expensed to the traveler's cost center.

PASSPORT HEALTH

Preferred supplier for the Westinghouse Illness Prevention Program

There are approximately 250 clinics in the United States

All vaccinations can be obtained through Passport Health

Passport Health has been providing travel vaccinations and education for more than 20 years and is the nation's leading travel medicine provider

PROGRAM WAIVER

- If you do not wish to obtain some/all required vaccinations, you may complete the Westinghouse Illness Prevention Program Waiver.
- Understand that if you do not obtain the required vaccinations, you may not be able to travel internationally for Westinghouse business. The form outlines the restrictions that are enforced for employees who have chosen to be non-immunized.
- If you wish to “waiver” out of the program, you will be able to do so after meeting with a vaccination health professional.

COMPLIANCE WITH THE PROGRAM

- To initially comply with the program, you must complete the Westinghouse Illness Prevention Program Acknowledgement & Waiver of Liability.
- You will be able to complete your Acknowledgment of the program on the following page, and you may email your Acknowledgment form to accounts@passporthealthusa.com or take it with you to your appointment.
- Additional information on the Illness Prevention Program is available on george. If you have questions, please contact globalsecurity@westinghouse.com.
